5. COMMENTS FROM THE CHAIRMAN

The Chairman welcomed the Clerk to the Parish Council and looked forward to working together.

The Chairman looked back over the past 12 months at the challenges that lockdown had brought to us all, and reflected that the residents of Wellow were more fortunate than others in the country being in rural area rather than say people confined to city centre flats . The chairman sent thanks to the Door Step DropTeam and others who help during Lock Downs, The chairman also thanked the team who had produced Village News, thanks also go to everyone who participated in the Zoom meetings.

The proposed Traffic works could cause havoc for the village but conversely may bring increased income to the village
