To whom this may concern,

To be used in conjunction with Declaration of Interests Kings Clipston Village Council.

I feel the need to make you aware of the involvement I have with the Mission Hall/Tabernacle.

Castlefield: the adjoining property contains the ruin of King John’s Palace. It is now thought the buildings originally covered 27 acres. It has been owned by my husband’s family since the Estate sale 1948 and been farmed by them till 1971. On my husband’s return to the family farm in 1971 we rented the field from his family till we purchased around 1991. The ruin in a damp state needed to have renovation work.
English Heritage and NCC provided the £10,000 to achieve its safety. It is a monument and of importance nationally.
At no time have we made any financial gain. On the opposite, we now keep the field to grass so as not to damage the wider archaeology. So in effect we earn very little. We have never charged for guide's tours or usage at any time during our ownership.
It is our wishes that this site will take its place in Nottingham's Sherwood's finest sites of interest and historical interest.
The Mission Church is much loved by the community and ourselves. The churchyard from Sheet leading to the name John Takemade. Built in 1903, it is now 112 years old. In a poor state of repair it needs funds to bring it back to its former glory and use. We have been attempts to do the necessary work to hold it whilst we seek the funds needed.
The village has no public space other than the Dog & Duck. The Mission Hall could provide a village facility & heritage town. The building sits comfortably with the ruin so it would be nice to keep and restore this building rather than a new build. That of course depends on a condition survey. All of which requires finance.
Although I own the property at the moment I would love to see it in the hands of a trust. The cost would be £23,500.
I will not require the expense to date, £1,700 removal of dangerous trees, £420 Highway management, £100 paint, £200 gutters and £5.6 per month insurance.
This is an opportunity to provide a public building in which village activities could develop. A space in which to tell the story of King John's Palace, Eight Plantagenet Kings and a Scottish one. Set in Sherwood Forest with its 1500 acres of Royal Hunting Park could be used to guide visitors to the other important areas of Sherwood.

At no time have I ever considered making money on this project for myself. It is my intention to protect and research the site as long as I am able.
