

16/58 Defibrillator

Both the defibrillator and the cabinet had now arrived ready for fitting. It was decided following a discussion that it would be fitted on to the outside of the foyer wall at the hall.

16/59 Willows Café

- a) Since the Party in the Park the café had been doing well. Since they started they have banked approximately £1350. Cllr Slingsby is waiting to hear back from Newark & Sherwood District Council about training courses for the volunteers.
- b) The Willows have decided they would like to hire a coach and put on a free trip to Birmingham Christmas market, for village residents only. Clerk to get quotes for coaches. They may also put on events in the café on the run up to Christmas.

16/60 Christmas

The only time the hall would be free for the pensioners party this year would be 10th December. It is to be investigated when the club are having theirs to see if they would clash. Quotes from caterers for approx. 70 would also need to be obtained.
